Safety Procedures and Standards of Behaviour

All GPI Atlantic Youth Program staff and facilitators are required to submit to a Criminal Records Check, including a child abuse check. GPI Atlantic Youth Program coordinators and facilitators have received training in Emergency First Aid and CPR, GPI Youth event health and safety procedures, and youth facilitation through the HeartWood Institute for Community Youth Development. GPI Atlantic Youth Program staff and facilitators, along with all youth participants of the Youth Leaders for Community Wellbeing Conference, are expected to use and respect the following codes of conduct:

- GPI Youth programs are free from violence, abuse, harassment or bullying of any kind (physical, sexual, emotional, psychological)
- All programs are drug and alcohol-free
- Inclusive relationships are encouraged, and participants are to refrain from any sexual activity
- Males and females have separate sleeping areas
- Participants are expected to stay within the physical boundaries of the program area defined by the staff

Please note that GPI Atlantic has a zero tolerance policy for disregard of the 'standards of behaviour.'

I agree to abide by the above standards of behaviour:
